

LIVE AND LOCAL

CALL FOR EMERGING EVENT PRODUCERS

Live and Local is a capacity building project which will focus on strengthening and supporting local live music communities including musicians, businesses and venues, local councils and local industry workers across Gympie, Noosa, Sunshine Coast and Moreton Bay.

This cross-regional project will support:

- development of local area Music Working Groups
- mentorship of emerging event curators
- performance opportunities for new and emerging musicians
- support of local venue-based live music industry
- delivery of live music events as part of a region wide micro-festival
- skills and professional development workshops
- local and regional industry roundtables
- foster a consistent approach to building a sustainable live music industry in our region
- build support for future projects based on the experience, engagement and information gained through the program

We are seeking four Emerging Event Curators (one in each of our project locations) Gympie / Noosa / Sunshine Coast / Moreton Bay

We are looking for emerging music industry professionals who will:

- Be connected to their local live music scene
- Have some experience in event / project curation and management
- Be over 18 years, with access to your own computer, phone, internet and vehicle
- Assist in industry mapping and census of local live music community
- Participate in and support the delivery of local Working Group meetings and an Industry Forum
- Provide input into planning for professional development workshops in your area
- Lead the engagement and programming of local musicians and businesses to participate in micro-festival events

What we are offering:

- Part-time PAID contract role
- Mentorship and support from industry professionals including Live Music Office and Regional Arts Services Network
- Opportunity to develop your professional skills, experience and networks within the music sector
